

GET YOUR A-LIST GLAM ON

Banish those wobbly bits with Hypoxi – the cult celebrity treatment that has finally reached our shores

FOR the past 10 years, Hypoxi has been known throughout Europe as the A-listers' choice for eliminating signs of cellulite. The Hypoxi Body Clinic in the Urban Retreat spa, at iconic London department store Harrods, is practically a revolving door for celebrities like British pop sensation Cheryl Cole and actress Anna Friel.

Finally this European treatment is now available in boutique studios around Australia – giving us the ability to target stubborn fat and cellulite from the stomach, hips, bottom and thighs. The real wow-factor is that you can lose up to 30cm from problem areas in as little as four weeks. All from doing simple 30-minute sessions in luxe studio surroundings. We love!

Find your closest studio at www.hypoxi.com.au or call 1300 HYPOXI (1300 497 694)

GET THE FACTS

FACT ONE: Each 30-minute Hypoxi session combines exercise with advanced vacuum technology to improve circulation to fatty areas with poor blood supply.

FACT TWO: Hypoxi accelerates fat metabolism by up to 80 per cent in the stomach, hips, bottom and thigh regions.

FACT THREE: Proven to achieve up to three times greater circumference loss in the targeted area than that achieved with conventional training alone.

WIN the ultimate celebrity escape at the Golden Door Health Retreat!

There's no need to board an international flight to get the ultimate A-list experience. During the month of September, Hypoxi is offering you the opportunity to not only shape up for summer but also WIN the ultimate celebrity getaway.

If you sign up for a course of Hypoxi you'll automatically go into the draw to WIN an all-inclusive, five-night holiday for two at the tranquil Golden Door Health Retreat in Queensland (www.goldendoor.com.au). To register to win this once in a lifetime holiday visit www.hypoxi.com.au or call 1300 HYPOXI (1300 497 694).

